

Opportunity to Serve as a Spiritual Support Facilitator in 2011

The Pastoral Care team is currently recruiting for their annual training of spiritual support facilitators. Spiritual support facilitators create a sacred space where healing can happen by providing compassionate listening, reflective inquiry, and comforting support to others in need.

Qualifications to serve include:

1. Being a Licensed Unity Teacher, or having a background in mental health, social work, addiction or pastoral counseling.
2. Having a solid understanding of Unity principles.
3. Being dedicated to spiritual growth and having a daily spiritual practice.
4. Being capable of empathy, understanding and confidentiality.
5. Having an attitude of acceptance and unconditional positive regard.
6. Being a good listener.

In addition, facilitators will be required to complete the following: (a) complete an application, background check & attend an interview (b) membership at UOTB, (c) attending the Pastoral Care Program retreat in February 2011.

Service consists of providing 2 hours of weekly service in the form of individual and/or group sessions, and attending bi-monthly training and planning meetings.
